

REFERENCES FOR BIOSOLIDS PRESENTATION

1. Rate and Description of N-Viro Biosolids Application
 - (a) N-Viro (Halifax) website.
 - (b) Halifax Regional Municipality Municipal Usage of Halifax N-Viro Soil Amendment – September 28, 2010.
 - (c) Chronicle Herald, Aaron Beswick – August 4, 2011 Comments by Dr. Murray McBride, PhD of Soil Chemistry, Cornell University and Letter to Editor of Chronicle Herald by Dr. Murray McBride, Director, Cornell Waste Management Institute, July 11, 2009.
2. Chronicle Herald, Chris Lambie – April 19, 2010.
3. Response by Dr. Murray McBride, Director Cornell Waste Management Institute to N-Viro.
4.
 - (a) CCME – June 30, 2010 – Final Report of Emerging Substances of Concern in Biosolids.
 - (b) Case for Caution Revisited: Health & Environmental Impacts of Application of Sewage Sludges to Agricultural Land, September, 2008.
 - (c) New Solutions, Vol. 21(1) 43-56, 2011. Jennifer Mathney: A Critical Review of the U.S. EPA's Risk Assessment for The Land Application of Sewage Sludge.
5.
 - (a) Cornell Waste Management Institute, M. McBride Response to N-Viro ,
 - (b) Case for Caution Revisited: Health & Environmental Impacts of Application of Sewage Sludges to Agricultural Land, September, 2008.
 - (c) New Solutions, Vol. 21(1) 43-56, 2011. Jennifer Mathney: A Critical Review of the U.S. EPA's Risk Assessment for The Land Application of Sewage Sludge.
6. Virginia Institute of Marine Sciences, Results of tests by Dr. Robert Hale, PhD, February 10, 2011.
7. Agriculture Land Review Committee Report, 2010. Is Nova Scotia Running Out of Agricultural Land?
8. List of Farms Not Using Biosolids, NSEN & Biosolids Free Nova Scotia, 2013.
9. NSEN – Biosolids Free Nova Scotia: Heavy Metals & Drugs in each Truckload of Biosolids.
10. N.S. Federation of Agriculture Newsletter – Dr. Gordon Price Presentation on Biosolids, September 15, 2010.
11. Alternative Technologies for Converting Biosolids into Energy, Biosolids Free Nova Scotia, March 2011.